New Best Western Hotel in Bavaria

A new Best Western Hotel is being built in Bavaria: The new Best Western Hotel Kiefersfelden is scheduled to open by May next year in Kiefersfelden in the district of Rosenheim. The modern hotel will offer 100 guest rooms.

Kiefersfelden/Eschborn (Germany), July 4th,2019. A new Best Western Hotel with 100 guest rooms is being built in Kiefersfelden in the Upper Bavarian district of Rosenheim. On 27 June 2019, the construction project officially started with the ground-breaking ceremony for the new hotel building on the "Kaiserreich Kiefersfelden" project area, which covers around 40,000 square metres. The hotel is expected to open its doors for the first guests in May 2020 with the name Best Western Hotel Kiefersfelden.

Overnight Stay in the "Kaiserreich"

The interior design of the Best Western Hotel Kiefersfelden is dominated by clear forms and a functional design. At the tourist starting point for exciting discoveries and experiences in the Bavarian and Austrian Alps, near the ski world "Wilder Kaiser", a total of 100 guest rooms in three categories will be created on seven floors. The new tourist centre in the Kaiserreich is thus not only suitable for business travelers, but is also geared towards leisure, group and bus travelers with family and barrier-free rooms. The 40,000 square metre project area "Kaiserreich Kiefersfelden", which is currently being built with an investment of around 45 million euros, also offers gastronomy, entertainment, leisure and hospitality as well as culture. The major project will be realised by the Unterberger Group according to designs by ATP architekten ingenieure, which is active throughout Europe.
